(b) to (e) During 1991-98 period, rural literacy rate has increased by 12 per cent as against the urban literacy rate of 7 per cent.

Monthly Monitoring Meetings are held to critically review the progress of literacy campaigns in the States with special focus on illiteracy prone rural areas.

A new approach has been adopted since 1st April, 2000 with the following features to ensure effective implementation of literacy programmes particularly in rural areas:

(i) National Literacy Mission (NLM) parameters have been revised and financial norms enhanced.

(ii) Decentralization and delegation of financial and administrative powers to State Literacy Mission Authorities (SLMAs).

(iii) The integrated Total Literacy Campaign (TLC) and Post Literacy Programmes (PLP) approach to achieve continuity, efficiency and convergence.

(iv) Under Continuing Education Programme neo literates are provided opportunities for skill development, income generating programmes and individual interest promotion programmes. Centres also work for removal of residual illiteracy.

(v) Jan Shikshan Sansthans to provide vocational and technical skills especially in rural areas.
